Keep looking up, going forward in faith.

You Are of Great Worth!

By the world's standards, if you have a big bank account and/or income, if you are beautiful or handsome, if you have several letters behind your name, or if you possess great musical or artistic skill, then you are worth something. If you don't have these things, then you aren't worth much at all.

God has a different standard. He created you and He loves you. When you doubt your worth, take a long look at the cross. That will show you what God thinks of you. If you had been the only person on earth who sinned, Jesus would still have come and died for you. You are worth that much to Him! Never doubt your worth in God's eyes!

With love from your Women's Ministries.
